100% ENVIRONMENTALLY FRIENDLY

These coloring books are printed on the highest quality recyclable paper available to the shopping center industry today. The paper is made from a process called THP which stands for Thermal Heat Process. The wood chips are made into pulp by way of steam, and not chlorine. This allows for the manufacturing of the paper to be done with the highest environmental standards possible. All fibre and pulp in the paper are 100% non toxic and 100% degradable. All inks used are a soy based product. All ink ingredients are non toxic and have been produced to the highest and safest standards.
